WOW, this home is beautiful!!! This is NOT a REO or Short Sale with the huge wait times for offers to be considered.

This is a great family home, located on a large corner lot. Shopping and conveniences near by. This home would be great for the investor who wants to expand their investment portfolio or the first time home buyer ready to take the homeowner plunge!

Better hurry, this one will go fast.

Lots of new, this is a must see. Call Mike or Traci today for a showing!!!
